BY-LAWS AND RULES FOR THE BOARD OF MANAGERS.

I. The Managers shall meet on the second Tuesday of each month, at such time and place as they shall appoint.

II. Seven of the Managers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business—except the election of Managers.

III. Every meeting shall be opened with reading a portion of Scripture, succeeded by a prayer.

IV. All reports of committees shall be in writing.

V. The President shall call extra meetings when she may think proper, or when three members unite in a request for that purpose.

VI. No member shall leave the meetings without permission, nor shall any lady unnecessarily change her seat, or engage in unnecessary conversation, before the Board has adjourned; also, every lady shall stand while reading reports, addressing the chair, or discussing the business of the meeting.

VII. The business of each stated meeting shall commence with calling the roll, followed by the Secretary reading the minutes of the preceding meeting, the Treasurer's report, report of Corresponding Secretary, Matron's report and the reports of committees, which if not presented must be asked for by the presiding officer. The unfinished business shall then be called up, any new business brought forward, and the weekly committees for the ensuing month announced.

VIII. After the annual meeting the standing committees shall be appointed, viz: The weekly committees for the year, which shall be inserted by the Secretary in the minute-book of the Committee; the Purchasing Committee; the Committee for Receiving Applications for Admission; the Employment Committee; Committee on Religious Services, and such other committees as may be required.

IX. It shall be the duty of the Employment Committee to procure material and prepare work adapted to the capacity of each inmate, that all may be suitably supplied when able to be employed. They shall keep an account of all work given out and returned; they shall also keep an account of money expended for material and received from the sale of articles. Should it be necessary during the absence of the Committee for the Matron to give out material or receive money from the sale of goods, an account of the same shall be handed to the Committee, who shall report in full to the Board at each stated meeting.

X. The Purchasing Committee shall, upon a requisition from the Matron, make all necessary purchases for the Home except the daily marketing, the bills for which shall be presented to the Treasurer. They shall keep a cash-book, in which all receipts and expenditures shall be entered, a report of which, in detail, must be submitted to the Board monthly, at its stated meeting.

XI. The Committee on Religious Services shall consist of ten or more members, two of whom shall be appointed monthly, whose duty shall be to see that the Home is duly supplied with the preaching of the Gospel, and who shall have a general supervision of the religious services.

The Committee shall have the Home supplied with preaching once or twice on the Sabbath-day.

The Committee shall give verbal instructions to the Matron how to act in relation to this subject in the absence of the Committee.

XII. A standing Committee on Printing shall be appointed by the Society, to whom all matter requisite to be printed shall be referred.

XIII. The names of such persons as shall suitably represent the various churches may be handed to the Managers at any stated meeting, and shall be by them presented to the Nominating Committee; but in all cases one month must elapse between the presentation of the name of the proposed manager and the final action upon the same by the Board.

XIV. The Visiting Committee shall visit the Home not less than twice during the week; they shall endeavor to be present at one of the meals, shall make themselves acquainted with the situation and wants of the inmates generally, direct the concerns of the family, and report their observations in a minute-book kept for that purpose, which book shall be passed over to the members of the succeeding committee.

The Committee shall supply the Home with one or more religious services during the week, as circumstances will permit.

XV.—COMMITTEE ON ADMISSIONS.

The Board shall appoint five of their number to receive applicants for admission.

They shall inquire into the character and circumstances of those making application, see that they have the necessary certificates from their pastor or session, are able to pay their own board, or provide some responsible persons who will pay it for them, or will pay one hundred and fifty dollars admission fee.

They shall require each applicant to sign a paper pledging herself to abide by the rules of the Home.

The Committee shall then refer the case to the Board, which shall in all cases reserve the right to decide upon the admission of applicants.

XVI.—A MEMORIAL FOUNDATION.

The gift or bequest of three thousand dollars ($3000) shall constitute a Memorial Foundation, which shall be called after the name of the donor, or as he or she may designate. The income of the endowment so made shall be appropriated to the perpetual maintenance and support of an inmate in the Home, the person or corporation so contributing being entitled to the privilege of nominating the inmate for admission into the Home, in conformity with the rules of the Institution.

XVII. Life-memberships may be constituted by the payment of twenty-five dollars ($25).

XVIII.—THE MATRON.

The Matron, under the direction of the Board, shall have charge of the house, shall enforce the rules of the Managers, prescribe the hours of meals, be present at and ask a blessing upon them.

She shall keep a book, which shall contain a list of the furniture, linen, etc., belonging to the Home; also presents made to the inmates or the Institution, and the names of the donors.

She shall render a monthly account to the Treasurer of all money entrusted to and expended by her; also a report to the Board monthly, of the condition of the Home and situation of the inmates generally.

She shall grant all leave of absence, inquire where the inmate intends staying, and the probable length of her visit.

She shall make out a requisition of the needed supplies, and submit the same to the Purchasing Committee.

XIX.—INMATES.

Applicants for admission must be residents of the State of Pennsylvania; have been members of the Presbyterian Church, in some one of its branches, for three years, and bring satisfactory proof of this by letter from their pastor or session.

They must pay the sum of $150, and must also sign a paper binding themselves to submit to the Matron, and abide by the rules of the house.

Any inmate who shall wish to leave the Institution, through dissatisfaction or any other cause, shall be permitted to do so, but shall not be eligible for re-admission. She shall also forfeit her admission-fee, or that proportion of it which shall be equivalent to her board during the term of her residence in the Home.

All personal property of residents of the Home at the time of their decease shall be disposed of at the discretion of the Admission Committee.

Those who are pensioners upon any benevolent institution or society, it is expected will have their pensions continued to assist in their support, and that their funeral expenses shall be paid.

Those who have any property are required to secure the same to the Institution before they are admitted. All shall be required to sign the following agreement, transferring to the Institution any property they may acquire after admission, in case they remain in the Home.

I hereby agree with the PRESBYTERIAN HOME FOR WIDOWS AND SINGLE WOMEN, in the State of Pennsylvania, that in case I acquire any property after my admission to the said Home, that if I remain in said Home, I will assign and transfer the same to the said Corporation, and this shall be taken as and for such assignment and transfer.

ANNUAL REPORT.

IN presenting the Fifth Annual Report of the Presbyterian Home, we feel that we have cause for renewed gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His loving care bestowed upon our efforts in behalf of those committed to our charge. To the numerous friends who have come forward with their hearty sympathy and generous pecuniary aid, to assist us in carrying out the purposes of our Institution, we are under many obligations.

At the commencement of the year there were forty inmates of the Home; since that period fifteen have been admitted, four have died, and one has been withdrawn, leaving as the present number fifty. To those who have experienced its need, the most skillful medical attendance has been available, together with the faithful and intelligent services of a thoroughly-qualified nurse.

Weekly meetings of prayer and praise have been held under the auspices of the various churches who are represented in the Board of Managers, and on Sabbath afternoons services have been conducted by the different pastors of our denomination.

The Committee on Employment, during the year, has furnished the inmates of the Home with material from which have been made both useful and fancy articles, which have been deposited from time to time in the case for sale.

The different holidays of the year have been pleasantly commemorated; the Thanksgiving dinner was furnished through the liberality of Mr. Matthew Baird, the Christmas and New Year's dinners, as well as that of the Fourth of July, were donated by the Managers and a few of their friends.

We again renew our thanks to Dr. Hoopes for his disinterested attentions to those needing his services, and also to Dr.

Ogden, who occasionally has acted as the representative of Dr. Hoopes. We desire to express our appreciation of the efficient care and unwearying kindness of Miss Julia A. Rumel, the Matron, towards the residents of the Home.

“Anniversary Day,” which heretofore has been observed on the 26th of October, was postponed until Tuesday, November 21st. On this occasion, as in the past, we experienced the practical aid we have never failed to receive from our friends whenever we have presented to them the needs of the Presbyterian Home. Most of the prominent churches took part in the Festival which was held during that day. In the Committee-room were three tables for the sale of useful and ornamental articles, one of which was the “Home Table,” and upon which were many things for disposal which had been in the course of preparation for months by inmates of the Home. During the afternoon religious services were held in the lower hall; prayer was offered and addresses were delivered, interspersed with several hymns, the service concluding with the doxology and benediction. Both before and after these exercises the building was crowded with those who came to testify their interest in the success and welfare of the Home. In the dining-room were refreshment tables, which, during the day and evening, were presided over by the ladies, and their aids, representing the different churches. The Festival, in its financial results, was most successful and also gratifying, from the fact of having been the means of causing a reunion of the members of the churches interested in this good work.

The building is free from debt, but we would ask our friends to remember that the support of those committed to our care is entirely dependent upon their donations and annual subscriptions, which we hope will be largely augmented during the coming year.

A chapel in connection with our Institution is very desirable, and we feel confident that when an appeal is made for aid in the erection of such a building, the response will be as substantial as when it was so nobly given at the “Presbyterian Fair” during the spring of 1875.
